

Environment of Care Standard 3.10: The organization manages hazardous materials and waste risks
Element of Performance 9. Labeling

The organization properly labels hazardous materials and waste.

Evidence of Compliance	Evidence of Performance Improvement
Hazardous Materials Management
<input type="checkbox"/> Hazardous chemical product labels indicate name of product and any hazard warnings
Hazardous Waste Management
<input type="checkbox"/> HazWaste containers marked "Hazardous Waste", descriptive name of waste, accum. start date <input type="checkbox"/> Satellite HazWaste containers labeled "Hazardous Waste", descriptive name of the waste <input type="checkbox"/> HazWaste shipping containers labeled with proper DOT shipping name, primary and subsid. hazards
Regulated Medical Waste
<input type="checkbox"/> Warning labels on containers of reg. waste, refrigerators, freezers containing infectious mtl. <input type="checkbox"/> Medical waste bags color coded (usu. red), labeled with universal biohazard symbol <input type="checkbox"/> RMW shipping containers labeled with proper DOT shipping name, primary and subsid. hazards
Universal Waste
<input type="checkbox"/> Containers properly labeled with the name of universal waste and accum. start date
Materials of Concern
<input type="checkbox"/> Asbestos containing (or assumed asbestos containing) building materials appropriately labeled <input type="checkbox"/> Areas using ethylene oxide with overexposure risk have appropriate warning sign <input type="checkbox"/> Aboveground storage tank parts labeled with appropriate American Petroleum Institute (API) code <input type="checkbox"/> Containers holding used oil labeled "Used Oil"	